

OCSEA Presents . . .

Orange County
Science Education
Association

April 2006

NEWS FLASH!!!

Teachers, don't leave your family behind!

Join us for a wonderful afternoon of botany, history & horticulture!

Fullerton Arboretum

Yorba Linda Blvd. & Associated Rd.

Fullerton, CA

Sunday, April 30, 2006

1:00 – 3:00pm

A Garden Party!

Contemplate the Wonders of this Hidden Oasis!

Take an hour-long tour of the gardens led by a trained docent and learn about plants from around the world, with a standards-based emphasis on climates and diversity.

Also, tour the Victorian Heritage House and Historical Gardens. Tour starts at 2 PM. Volunteers will be available. Refreshments, too.

“OCSEA Presents . . .” offers you an afternoon of tranquility. This is for everyone who values life-long learning for yourself and your family!

Free, free, free ...parking, too!

This event is brought to you by the cooperative efforts of the Orange County Science Education Association, and Fullerton Arboretum.

LET US KNOW THAT YOU AND YOUR FAMILY WILL BE THERE!

- 1 RSVP no later than 4/26 to Stephanie Yancey at sdyancey@beckman.com. 3/29-31, contact Sandy Kaszynski at teacher@kaszynski.com
- 2 Tell us your name, school district, and how many adults/children we can plan for.
- 3 This event will not be held if it is raining. A map and directions can be found at: <http://arboretum.fullerton.edu/info/map.asp>
